Ovogodišnji, sedmi po redu međunarodni konkurs STRIP KAIŠA okupio je pojedince, škole, dečje likovne atelje, dečje kulturne centre i slične dečje ustanove i asocijacije iz celog sveta. Pravo učešća su imala deca od 5 do 18 godina. Tema i tehnika rada su bile slobodne. Bilo je potrebno da se ispuni forma strip-kaiša (najjednostavnija – linearna forma stripa, a sastoji se od tri ili više kadrova u nizu) i da se ispriča likovnim jezikom zanimljiva priča koja sadrži autentičan scenario i crtež. Reči su često bile neizbežne, ali vrlo su bili zanimljivi i neverbalni strip-kaiševi koji su univerzalno razumljivi. Da je pripovedanje u slikama zahtevan proces, govori i činjenica da forma kaiša predstavlja najveći izazov kako najmlađima, tako i malo starijim umetnicima.

Ove godine stiglo je oko 1000 radova iz raznih krajeva Srbije, Bosne i Hercegovine, Hrvatske, Slovenije,

This year's the seventh International Comic Strip Competition gathered individual participants, schools, children art studios, children's cultural centers and similar institutions and associations for children from all over the world. Children from 5 and 18 years old had were eligible to participate in this competition. The topic and work technique were free to chose. It was necessary to fulfill the form of a strip-belt (the simplest linear form of a comic strip, consisting of three or more frames in a row), and to tell an interesting story in visual language, with an authentic scenario and drawing. Words were often unavoidable, but non-verbal strip-belts, that were universally understandable, were particularly very interesting. The fact that storytelling through images is a demanding proces is confirmed by the fact that the form of the belt represents the biggest challenge for both the youngest and slightly older artists.

This year, around 1000 works arrived from various parts of Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Slovenia, Romania, Bulgaria, Russia, and Mauritius. The members of the expert jury were: Mileta Mića

Rumunije, Bugarske, Rusije i sa Mauriciusa. Članovi stručnog žirija bili su: Mileta Mića Miloradović, karikaturista i pedagog, Uroš Maksimović, master primenjeni umetnik – grafički dizajner i Filip Karan, koncept art umetnik i ilustrator.

Radovi izloženi u Galeriji Dečjeg kulturnog centra Beograd predstavljaju svojevrsan poziv svim ljubiteljima devete umetnosti da se upuste u režiranje svoje najzanimljivije priče u tri kadra, da zakorače u raskošan likovni svet, da istražuju, uživaju, jer igra je ipak najvažnija stvar na svetu, a mi odrasli smo gotovo zaboravili na to!

Miloradović, caricaturist and educator, Uroš Maksimović, illustrator and designer, and Filip Karan, concept artist and illustrator.

The works exhibited displayed at the Gallery of the Children's Cultural Center in Belgrade represent a kind of are a poetic invitation to all lovers of the ninth art to embark on crafting their most captivating story in three frames, to step into a vibrant and boundless visual world, to explore and revel in its beauty. After all, play is the most important thing in the world, and we, as adults, have almost forgotten its magic.
